

Dear FCC,

I think that Satellite Radio should be able to broadcast the traffic and weather report. I have only been listening to satellite radio for the last three, since I purchased my new car, but I find it much more enjoyable and informative than standard radio, which I cannot listen to. Please do not restrict satellite radio from providing this information.

Thank you,
Dwyline Kruger